General: It's 'fun to shoot some people'

Commandant gives counsel, acknowledges wrong word choice

Friday, February 4, 2005 Posted: 11:02 AM EST (1602 GMT)

WASHINGTON (CNN) -- A three-star Marine general who said it was "fun to shoot some people" should have chosen his words more carefully, the Marine Corps commandant said Thursday.

Lt. Gen. James Mattis, who commanded Marine expeditions in Afghanistan and Iraq, made the comments Tuesday during a panel discussion in San Diego, California.

"Actually it's quite fun to fight them, you know. It's a hell of a hoot," Mattis said, prompting laughter from some military members in the audience. "It's fun to shoot some people. I'll be right up there with you. I like brawling."

When a reporter for the United States Army Training and Doctrine Command interviewed Frank Zappa for the Command's news syndicate, the story was held by a superior who demanded that Zappa—who had been rather hard on the Army—answer one more question: just who does he think will defend the country without the Army?

Zappa's reply: "From what? The biggest threat to America today is its own federal government . . . Will the Army protect anybody from the FBI? The IRS? The CIA? The Republican party? The Democratic party? . . . The biggest dangers we face today don't even need to sneak past our billion-dollar defense system . . . they issue the contracts for them."

The interview was not run.

My prime minister has just spent $14bn on 58 fighter jets that aren't going to be built in Australia. So let's put that into perspective.... we've all got to tighten our belts and do the "heavy lifting", and with a AAA rated economy, pensions are about to be cut, DSP are about to be cut, ABC funding is about to be cut, public services across the board are about to be cut...

...while 14 BILLION dollars of our tax money, money that belongs to us - to contribute to services for our nation - goes to America for the creation of war supplies. War that CREATES asylum seekers.

We need to wake up and realize that our real enemies are not in some distant land, they're not people whose names we don't know and cultures we don't understand. The enemy is people we know very well and people we can identify. The enemy is a system that wages war when it's profitable. The enemy is the CEO's who lay us off from our job when it's profitable, it's the insurance companies who deny us health care when it's profitable, it's the banks who take away our home when it's profitable. Our enemy is not 5000 miles away, they are right here at home and if we organize and fight with our brothers and sisters, we can stop this war, we can stop this government and we can create a better world!

The current civil unrest is manufactured by the CIA for the US/UN/NWO regime.

According to Congressman Dana Rohrabacher, left, the Taliban is a "construct of the CIA and was armed by the CIA." Rohrabacher said that the CIA-created Taliban served the US interests against the Russians in Afghanistan and have continued to be used even up-and-to the current presidential administration.

Rohrabacher spoke during a House Committee on Foreign Affairs meeting where he named Hillary Clinton, US Secretary of State was part of the ruse that is the Taliban. Clinton's husband, during his presidency formed the Taliban with the assistance of the Saudi Arabian government and Pakistan.

"The truth is there is no Islamic army or terrorist group called Al-Qaeda. And any informed intelligence officer knows this. George Orwell

Every war when it comes, or before it comes, is represented not as a war but as an act of self-defense against a homicidal maniac.

In our time political speech and writing are largely the defense of the indefensible.

But if thought corrupts language, language can also corrupt thought.

All the war-propaganda, all the screaming and lies and hatred, comes invariably from people who are not fighting.

Political language... is designed to make lies sound truthful and murder respectable, and to give an appearance of solidity to pure wind.

War against a foreign country only happens when the moneyed classes think they are going to profit from it.

Nationalism is power hunger tempered by self-deception.

War is peace. Freedom is slavery. Ignorance is strength. (On the manipulation of language for political ends.)

We have now sunk to a depth at which restatement of the obvious is the first duty of intelligent men.

If liberty means anything at all, it means the right to tell people what they do not want to hear.

In times of universal deceit, telling the truth will be a revolutionary act.

COST OF WAR
sufferers know it best

"As an Iraq War veteran, the combat deaths and homefront suicides of our troops not only fill me with grief, but also indescribable guilt. Grief, for these men and women are much too young to have needlessly die in a needless war. I can only imagine the suffering their family must be going through knowing that their sons and daughters died for a lie. And guilt, for I feel I have not done enough to dissuade young Americans from participating in this injustice.*

I wish I could tell them what awaits them: that they will bear a disproportionate number of the deaths in these wars, and if they survive, suffer massive psychological trauma—trauma that comes from being morally complicit in the murders of innocents—that compels their comrade-in-arms to commit an increasing number of suicides. And that once the military is done with them, they will face disproportionately high unemployment rates, homelessness, and higher risk for suicides.

I had been through the brainwashing by our military and government for 3 years by the time I deployed to Iraq in 2004. But despite the mental manipulation, I still questioned our involvement in overseas operations. While in Iraq I learned that I was right to question the US involvement in the country as these people were clearly not our 'enemy' and obviously did not want or need us there. What our country did in Iraq was kill, torture and poison innocent people, all in an imperialist effort to CONTROL and STEAL. I returned home in 2005 with mental and physical scars, it is a miracle and by the grace of my mother that I did not end up as another suicide/drug abuse/ homeless vet statistic. The invasion of Iraq will surely go down in history as one of the most cowardly wars ever fought. It was a war in which a band of rich nations, armed with enough nuclear weapons to destroy the world several times over, rounded on a poor nation, falsely accused it of having nuclear weapons, used the United Nations to force it to disarm, then invaded it, occupied it, and are now in the process of selling it.

Why, of course, the people don't want war. Why would some poor slob on a farm want to risk his life in a war when the best that he can get out of it is to come back to his farm in one piece. Naturally, the common people don't want war; neither in Russia nor in England nor in America, nor for that matter in Germany. That is understood. But, after all, it is the leaders of the country who determine the policy and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy or a fascist dictatorship or a Parliament or a Communist dictatorship.

Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same way in any country.
